

Policies and Pathways		Tick
Policies	I know the location of the local rules
	I know the location of my department safety policies
	Safety protocols are regularly reviewed and updated in my department. If I am not directly involved in this, I know who does this
	I am familiar with the latest version of the MHRA guidance and the SOR/BAMRR joint publication on MRI and know where to find them for reference
	I know the location of the MR risk assessments and I have the read them within the last year
	I have undertaken training and competency in cannulation and medicine management and my competencies are up-to-date
	I have read and signed local PGD or PSD guidance
Pathways	I know the urgent and significant finding pathway in my department
	I know how to report an incident on my local incident reporting system
	I know the IOFB pathway for my department, and under IR(ME)R my responsibility to refer a patient for orbital x-ray if necessary

Accessible information standards	I can adapt my communication to meet and support the needs of patients and carers who have a disability, impairment or sensory loss I know my department interpreter policy I know the location of the nearest hearing loop induction system
---	---	--

I know about the hazards in MRI

<input type="checkbox"/>	Static magnetic field	<input type="checkbox"/>	Phantom fluids
<input type="checkbox"/>	Time-varying magnetic gradient field	<input type="checkbox"/>	Cryogen
<input type="checkbox"/>	Radio frequency magnetic fields	<input type="checkbox"/>	Acoustic noise
<input type="checkbox"/>	Pregnancy in MRI

MRI layout and Areas		Tick
Controlled Access Area	I know where the Controlled Access Area starts, the different areas within it, and the location of the MR environment
Fire exits	I know the location of fire exits and call points in my department

Notes
My learning objectives	